

Daiichi Sankyo Group Quality Policy

In order to deliver safe and effective medicinal products and high quality medical information to populations with diverse medical needs, Daiichi Sankyo Group recognizes its important responsibility to foster a culture of quality and promote compliance management, and defines the basic policy on quality as “Daiichi Sankyo Group Quality Policy”.

- Daiichi Sankyo Group’s business is conducted in compliance with applicable regulations, Daiichi Sankyo Group’s policies and procedures to supply populations with diverse medical needs with high quality, safe and effective products.
- Daiichi Sankyo Group’s Quality Management System, which is based on the principles of quality risk management and continuous improvement, will verify the suitability of related operations and procedures in accordance with the changing science / technology, environment, and regulations throughout the entire product life cycle. Daiichi Sankyo Group develops employees who have the skills and knowledge necessary to properly perform their duties in accordance with applicable regulations and Daiichi Sankyo Group’s policies and procedures through continuous training.
- Daiichi Sankyo Group’s executives promote quality-driven behavior beyond compliance and fosters a culture of quality. Daiichi Sankyo Group’s executives are ultimately responsible for guaranteeing the quality of products and the reliability of related information and proactively manage, supervise and continuously improve quality issues and risks through Quality Management Review and allocate resources appropriately.
- Every single Daiichi Sankyo Group employee including corporate officers recognize the importance of quality and is engaged in continuous quality improvement to ensure product quality and safety.