Daiichi Sankyo Pledges Support for Victims of the Noto Peninsula Earthquake

Tokyo, Japan - (January 5, 2024) - Daiichi Sankyo (TSE: 4568) today announced that, through the Japanese Red Cross Society, it will make a donation of 10 million yen and implement a matching gifts program* to assist victims of the Noto Peninsula earthquake.

Daiichi Sankyo offers its sincere condolences to all the people affected by the Noto Peninsula earthquake. We hope that this humanitarian support will provide immediate assistance to those in need as well as help those persons in the affected areas begin their return to a peaceful life as soon as possible.

* A program in which the company donates the same amount as donations from employees.
