Support for the Great East Japan Earthquake Recovery

Disaster Relief Volunteer Activities

A total of 67 staff members of the Group conducted disaster relief volunteer activities in areas that suffered major damage in the Great East Japan Earthquake. They helped in removing mud from factories and houses, taking away soaked fertilizer bags piled outside, and clearing scattered fishing gear and rubble.

Donations for Relief Support

The Daiichi Sankyo Group donated a total of 190,970,049 yen to the Japanese Red Cross Society and to the Red Cross Society of other countries. This figure includes 100,000,000 yen donated by the Group, 40,988,639 yen donated by Group employees, and 49,981,410 yen in matching gifts contributed by the Group through its matching gift program.*¹

Providing Medical-use and OTC Pharmaceutical Products

Daiichi Sankyo coordinated with the Japan Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association and quickly provided medical products such as hemostatic drugs, anti-inflammatory analgesic agents, hypertension drugs, and antibacterial agents. In addition, the company listed healthcare products, including OTC drugs,*² and provided them for free through the Japan Self-Medication Industry.

Production and Distribution of a Health Information Booklet

Daiichi Sankyo donated a total of 10,000,000 yen raised through donations by staff members and contributions from the company to the Mori no Miyako Committee on Occupational Health to fund production and distribution of a health information booklet designed for earthquake evacuees living in temporary housing. A total of 36 Group company staff volunteered to support the distribution of this booklet. With the assistance of volunteers from the Silver Human Resource Centers in Miyagi Prefecture and Kahoku Shinpo News Company, as well as the Group's volunteers, a total of 87,000 copies were distributed to families living in temporary housing.

Daiichi Sankyo Presents Family Ties Theater 2012

In March 2012, the company invited 903 people affected by the earthquake to attend the "Daiichi Sankyo Presents Family Ties Theater 2012" (Shiki Theatre Company musical, "Yuta and the Enchanted Friends"). A total of 50 group company employees volunteered, helping with preparations and organization on the day of the musical.
